Strictly today any opinions I express on the program are my own and that we will probably definitely need to make a general note for the content warnings tell you why and so tell you what's the main article on the show today to discuss. So switchboard 1-800 1845 27 Family Violence line one eight hundred five, four two eight four seven rainbow door one eight hundred seven to nine 367 SMS 0 Four eight zero zero one seven two four six and I mention those lines specifically because we have an article that just came my why I checked in on it this morning and as I was checking old-fashioned sort of Technology being Google alerts for last night and got onto the article in yesterday's good weekend in the age and this needs to be really taken apart in terms of both the media approach and the material itself. So that's why these content notes will be of relevance. And so this article is called talking trans: adolescence gender Transitions and the conversations we need to have and then the subtitle on online says the number of young people changing gender deer has risen.

Fast in the past decade what's going on? And should we be celebrating or concern now? Let's start with that word. We who makes decisions about what the conversations are who makes them for whom and with what Authority Michael bachelor pad. Oh, you're a former edit senior editor of the age. So you have think you've got a thority new Trans people lead trans conversations the end. Game over now. I'm not going to go through all the details of this but we have

Stop we start with the story of someone who'd a transition. Now that story is valid every certainty about that. But it then goes on and I'm using as a Rough Guide the little screen anything on the side of my laptop which starts at the top and goes down throughout the article and hits the bottom Arrow when it gets there. We have this story which includes content note propaganda around at school says the person interviewed

From my peers poster school councils and a queer in inverted commas space to gather in and then Misha could not move on being and then says being cis het was very uncool because it's boring sorry. No all I know my I've been known to make humorous remarks about this. Let's just value ever on on their merits and also people want to feel oppressed and special all really. Yes I gave up.

My sis gender heterosexual neurotypical privilege because I want to feel oppressed. The last thing you want to be is privileged. Really? No no one wants to privilege or oppressed. We just want to everyone I think once a fair go why I might speak for everyone. I would believe the vast majority of people would want to the proverbial Fair go. She Misha finds it cringy when pronoun use comes up. So And the reporter is then said they've avoided using any pronouns for me.

Aisha but Misha remains plagued by gender distress known as gender dysphoria. Mr. Says I don't believe in the ideology. I wires that ideology when trans people speak up but the cisgender expectations are not considered I ideology and that's not about Misha. That's about how this report doesn't make that comment. I then have serious dysphoria now and I can't make it go away and the friends shut the Citation down saying mission was a conspiracy theorist transphobic and that someone else being wishes mother was a toxic influences should be rejected. Well, I wouldn't go as far as to say that but what happened to unconditional love for your children regardless of what all parts of their identity. And so this is this story goes on for probably a good quarter of the article to start with and that's why I have a problem with

The media in this article, it's you know be get people's emotions into one thing first and I sure will come to this a little later on as I go through this article, but then what do we talk about? So then we talked about suburbs and towns across Australia throughout the Western World. Well, actually we're talking about it on lots of part of the world because if you look up the PBS interactive gender map, you'll find different forms of gender identity and expression all over the world since the human race began starting in about 2012.

Urge of people many children and adolescents began coming forward. No. Well, it says many of them children and adolescents. Well, this adult came forward in 1995 and Julie Peters and Kayleen white and many others with hit before me. Hello. And so what there was suddenly a you know, suddenly we put something in the coffee Supply the water and into that around 2011 did we some of these people content to dress Ambiguously how not to find and change their name some live like this for

Time then revert to their birth gender a proportion seek medical treatment. We then talked about the numbers at the Royal Children's Hospital Victorian government figures show the numbers at both children's hospital and monitor for the marketers in the last two years, but we don't say why maybe G it's because people are fed up with scared to be themselves because of all the what we consider and it's our lives Michael and nine media the biased media and all the hatred state.

Health Department did not offer an explanation for the decrease just as no one can explain with confidence. It could also be there's such a huge backlog at Monash and Royal Children's and maybe there are some Alternatives people going elsewhere some pit research postulates the huge rise might be partly due to an increased in trans visibility in the media. Well, we could be that there's more social connection because of internet and people can find something unlike me who didn't even have a word for myself for 29 years and then Skeptics argue. There might be an element in inverted commas of Social contagion particularly amongst teenage girls which ignores the fact that there is also a relatively proportionate distribution of trans men trans women and trans women and trans went men to mask women fam and those who identifies beyond the binary. We then have sort of a mention of gender affirming care, which is neutral. We're still only about a third.

The way through the article has path trans patients are the experts of their own lives in the final authority of their own gender. Yes, that's a quote as it should be treatment is slow careful and multidisciplinary in the Adolescent clinics many drop out at the waiting list in the reality of treatment. Then comes puberty blockers, then it's uses the term cross-sex hormones are highly binary term in my opinion. Why are they just not hormones and the clinic must obtain the

And both the child's parents as well as the clinicians. Well, what if you're a single parent Top surgery is rare for adolescents in Australia will very rare. Bottom surgery is only available to adults and only if they can afford private treatment. Well, it can be available if both parents consent so didn't get that, right?

Many families happily agree and support the child's transition and affirming has the support of most doctors psychologists psychiatrists. Well, that's nice. We then have to mention the Tavistock clinic. So we mentioned one Clinic after an official review. What about all the other clinics around the world that are doing fabulously we have to mention the controversial study about Westmead, which some people have declared very biased against trans people. Oh and here's where we get into Youth and yeah,

People attitudes and a big congratulations and Watson. It's not about the viewpoints to young people who protested this week and weren't subject to patriarchal discipline to stay at school. But here we go. The young people on this in this is a quote from the West made report did not have the cognitive psychological or emotional capacity to understand the decisions. They are making also trans people particularly trans young people are stupid. Well that's vilification and Westmead is now back on an affirming care track. So and the cautious approach has been taken by the UK. They came under the sway of an anti Child and Adolescent affirming Lobby. Well, that's very true. Particularly the UK where so-called gender critical thinking has taken a very strong sadly a strong grip and trans lives a hell and the United Kingdom is now in terms of trans hate one of the world's worst places in Europe and getting up to one of the worst in the world.

So the Victorian government didn't answer questions from good weekend about the Clinic's work citing privacy concerns internationally among some doctors and scientists in the Australia. The reassurance has it taken the progenitor from here at the best ball treatment not taken at face value the disquiet amongst professionals and a tincture and it has ensure had drawn GP cover for some treatments and a small number of legal challenges in the courts.

Small number what about the big one now? Finally just before about halfway into this article. We get to a story about Sage more Hinton and their fair and say just happy and families happy. This goes on for around a third of the article, but we get into the middle but then just start will actually just after half way and then we go we talked to a group of parents who had more desperate to have an open discussion about what they see is the tragedies happening in their lives.

As 15 people representative of a group of 30 and children are expressing in general Congress. They're all middle class middle age professionals. So what they have gray hair and serve nice cheese, I'll dear they say the left has abandoned them on the trans issue. I we've got a blame the left, you know, that wouldn't be good at you no good. If we didn't do that nevermind right-wing extremism gender question children mostly born female and neuro-diverse.

And they refer to the children by their birth sex. Oh, do you can't even respect your child? That's nice. The real threat is affirming care. They say they oppose it out of love. Yeah. Yeah. Sure. Sure. Well, maybe you do maybe you don't they feel being publicly labeled anti-trans or transphobic or even their jobs threatened. Well the simple answer don't be Andy trans and think my child thinks I'm Nick where the Antichrist here says one father.

Other and they see it as a trend G. There's the dare. I say the anti-trans ideology. Oh, sorry, I'm probably not allowed to say that parents called the legislation the ante therapy law and referring to Victoria's Community can anti conversion practice law and they they use the term gender ideology. Why isn't there to comment in this article from a group that does support loved ones of trans people to claim a possible interest as

A committee member of One grow such group and on we go and then we get goes through this for another about a third of the article. But and then the parent says affirming means to tell the assigned female child to hate any female characteristics not doesn't lots of trans people just find are not hating the first part of themselves. They're just unhappy in them what to get get to a better.

Ice then we have another D transition a story for about the third quarter of this article. We then have possible cross sex hormone therapy effects. What's reversible and what's not for what is called born female took testosterone and then born male took estrogen and then so this goes on for yes about another quarter of the article. We then have talked about How member of the grant greens have been injected the Liberals have had a nightmare for their leader John pursue do and Victoria. Well, no, you didn't that says you cannot wake up from it. Well, he stood up on his principles and said he didn't want alleged neo-nazism in his party and I'm being trying to be very objective there and doing my best finally at the about the three-quarter mark this article on yes, this segment is going on a long time, but I'm going to get it all in there and then I'll get your comments.

Matches contested but what's not his young people with gender and courts are much likely to be more autistic more like multiple times more likely to be autistic. Well, yes, there's an overlap to some first whatever reason between trans and autism for that matter lots of queer and autism and yes, we have mental health issues which have been linked in research time and again to discrimination the various writing themselves in reports show where people have experienced no discrimination there met their health and other things are better off if it's verbal the

In the health decreases if it's physical and sexual abuse, of course, it goes down. Mmm, and then we get to deeper mental health issues and some people say the risk is overstated. We've got a pile of research that says what the real the major risk of not being able to be themselves. And then of course we mentioned the inquiry that comes up finally around I'll be on three-quarters of the article. We talked to Michelle.

Mar the volunteer chair of transgender Victoria declaring my past interest in the organization and it says like many in the trans Community. She's wary of the median anything that's likely to deter or mislead any child parent or a dust lint from seeking professional advice and Healthcare and Michelle and transgender Victoria's Chief Executives on Vivian speak for the longer View.

And so finally we get to what a transport of view from experience trans people in an organization with a significant degree of respect again declaring

My past interest but obviously I'm speaking for myself here training. They say gender diversity is always been among us but suppressed by Prejudice and the affirming care model supports and that and these gains are now under Challenge from an advanced Avalanche of discrimination. This is beyond the three-quarter Mark of the article and Michelle is quite blunt here parents really love their children. They be going hell for leather to help them affirm their bloody gender. Yes, Michelle I'm with you on the intensity of that. Michelle is now 70 and didn't affirm her.

Identity I60. I know what it was like to live half my life as the wrong gender identity and on it goes we then have Saint Vivian and someone says there is no trans person in the world who will tell you that gender affirmation is a magic wand or fixed for all discontent. Absolutely. We've all got stuff as people Everyone ate one of eight billion of us on this planet transgender Victoria and tries to address this by providing social and Community Connection and support and yeah sort of

Learn some Vivian urges the parents opposing gender transition of the turnout is to encourage the person's courage and curiosity. Let them know they are loved regardless of what path they do take and leave space for them to grow and change and that people do come on and off hormones and that breasts can be reached through constructed and Michael Bachelor didn't care as I've spoken to two dozen people for this story and isn't that nice of you one of you holds it affirming care is working while the other asked its

Had he must not ask more serious question Society has always got right members Society east of majority thieves to think the Earth is flat representatives of both. He's asked me to ask what I thought could play motivate the other side and then he claims his viewers both want the best for children and young people but disagree on what that is and how to achieve it. Oh, really? I'm not so sure about that gender fluidity is here to stay and the thing is

My bachelor's his we need to talk more openly and with more nuanced about these questions again, the we so there's yes. Normally that's aren't about two segments with but I had to go through that. I'd welcome. Everyone's thoughts on this. I'll check in now that we've got some comments coming in on the social media and other platforms. They're all there. And of course the SMS Line 6 1 4 5 6 7 5 to 15 and we'll

Another track. And in the meantime, what will we go with we're going to have a track because it's World AIDS day on Friday. And this one is plugged in. That is are supporting live music and supporting I sort of thought that goes beyond mainstream media very much why 3 CR is needed and well, look, there's some days. I wonder when the after 18 years why I still do the show and it's two days like today where it's needed. I had some comments in will go through the mean random order over on the SMS line six one four, five, six, seven five one two, and five Kayleen excellent analysis agree.

Everything you've said the writer from the age is clearly utterly uninformed and seems to be biased by their own views perhaps about their own gender, which is something I've experienced in many transphobes including pseudo parents who are transphobic and I knew and Kailyn talking about herself. I knew block letters. I was female when I was four. Well, yeah since similar over here not only in terms of the number Kalin, of course, it doesn't matter what age you realize it's who you are. It's just that's when it happens. I still remember my first

Stay at a so-called all-boys school. At least I proved them wrong. The gender critical ideology has been described as genocide by The Lemkin Institute. Yeah, that's a really good point to note and yet under the age would in the interests of or any media outlet that claims to be an interest to balance would quite hate groups and take speech and genocide good questions comment from Jack Brady. I don't know if the author of the article has a penis and is used if he is using it appropriately like does he stand up to pee when?

Blinds being trans to him. He does his dressing as a traditional man mean he is straight. When are we going to have a nuanced conversation about why man's neck tie looks like but the phallic object in a noose God will Good Golly. No, we definitely need to release release some tension there and Jack's done it with that comment and one comment, which I've only had a chance to get this around to a few people. Thus far one person said they're in Tuition is the anti transition parents group in the article has an affiliation to the author. He's the author has failed to mention where all the pro transition parents groups yet. Impression is of an Insurgency against affirming care, which doesn't really exist. Yes interesting how its taught it talks about how the benefits has the things that the trans people and allies would say are overstated but doesn't put it the other way definite bias in the article going to gender ideology. Whatever that is social Contagion.

And he makes the case for the social can judge contagion and transitions D transitioning or pretending he's asking questions, you know this whole we should ask the questions yet, but agree with that comment and it will legitimize the turf perspective and also it doesn't mean give a range of coverage from around Australian States and territories. So lots of good comments keep them coming in because this is something about which

We need to communicate. So yeah, so along a segment as I said, but to borrow from pork heading to the conversation we have to have all right, that's the end of the first bout and the fall has been taken. There's the obligatory very segwayed wrestling reference that 33 minutes and 46 seconds in a partner. We shouldn't I should make the rule that

Mentioning at sell gold said so is never the wrestling reference in this show, but we are coming up on a very serious note on Friday to World AIDS day. I also forgot to mention by the way that the opening track which was very very very beautiful was raible the village WRA be elissabeth417 clip to that a little perhaps a little triggering for some people but it has on it in nature of flock will the Attack any bird that is more colorful than the others because being different is seen as a threat. Hmm. Yes, and that makes me wonder just coming back to the trans stuff one wonders about things like insecurities jealousy from people as well. I wanted to talk about world AIDS day a very important day because of huge relevance in the queer calendar particularly for gay and bisexual men, but also for many others, it's been observed since 1988 and

I wasn't at that point in my life out connected to Rainbow and HIV communities and I do remember the emotions of the time and the advertising campaigns, which well with hindsight probably were an over reaction some might say at the time site the Grim Reaper bowling ball bowling lane alley ads and you know, it's also worth mentioning a few things here that you know that so many People lost loved ones and the fact that we haven't got and I'm I can only say this from a very real a point of view will say a very sort of the fact that when covid broke out in 2020. It was this race to get a vaccine and we still don't have like a the equivalent instant vaccine against HIV. A lot of people were very triggered by that and said well, why are we being left behind again? And one of the things about covid is I wonder

How many Medical Treatments and other things were pushed down the line because of it? Yes in one sense. It had to be but if the things are already pushed down the line because of stigma they're going to be further further push down the line. And so now it's sort of you know, we have to some extent lost a bit of focus on world AIDS day, but there is of course room for everyone. I'm a great believer in abundance and now

Sort of we need to remember it and I think that one of the lasting effects of the sort of HIV approach in the 90s has been the stigma against anyone who is seen as having male on male sex. Now this can include trans women, but I've had some information that all trans people trans women trans men non-binary a gender are now being lumped in the same basket rather than being treated on their merits and this is what we are Australia is so

Behind on blood donation and we need to be doing something about that and looking at safe sex practices rather than identities. There are heterosexual people who might be doing unsafe sex or and let's be adults about this. Yes. It's 12:30 7 p.m. In the afternoon. There are some people of any who would client been to, you know, heterosexual cisgender and do sex relationship between 10 a.m. And 1 F so to speak who might be doing all I'm going to mention this word.

At at 12:37 anal sex and doing it unprotected. So that's unsafe. So, you know, it's about safe sex practices and it's why we need to update our blood donation guidelines other countries have done this and made it far more Equitable. And we also have a low blood donation rate and that's because many people affected by this and whilst it's not my total area of expertise. Of course in Australia. There are great practices to ensure sexual.

For those working in the sex industry, but they get stigmatized unfairly as well because of not looking at on the merits of the situation perhaps because some other countries may not have those guidelines. So definitely be aware of things on world AIDS day great website. Once again mentioned it a couple of weeks ago World AIDS day dot org dot which is how to get involved in Australia and you can find out about campaigns in each state and territory. We will do live radio people of all genders.

And look at what's happening in Victoria. We've got the world AIDS day display. We've got the AIDS Memorial Garden to a coming up this Wednesday in the evening. We've got the world AIDS Day Street Appeal on Friday, of course, which is World AIDS day with Thorn Harbor volunteers hitting the streets and reminding everyone that HIV still matters will have an official Community launch. They'll be a forum moderated by Sarah Graham from Victorian Department of Health.

And all sorts of other things. So yeah World AIDS day dot org dot are you and that is a good guide in for people in so-called Australia to find their particular events of interest and perhaps how you can get involved. I'm sure there's always a need for more volunteers around the streets and to perhaps a rattle attend or whatever we do in this day and age of electronically. Do we have a stripe reader or something? Why not Square Reader? I'm too Square seriously, Mike

Sure that we do all of that. So yeah, very important work that needs to be done and now well done to all those involved. So yes a really important campaign. Let's have a listen now to some more music we had Reba McEntire's has said we had raible and the village and it's the society including the village. That's the issue and also want to mention that it's reporting like this which is why I'm a very strong.

Long supporter in the not into the Royal commission into the Murdoch media, but it really needs to be in to Media concentration in this country and the ongoing bias. I mean, yes, it's happening in lots of parts of so-called society and community in this country. But now we also have to now there's a sense again this disconnect of power which I think seems to be a common theme running through everything and how out of

Catch major is with report like that. No, that wasn't a Murdock maybe report that I spent the first 25 minutes or 20 minutes of the show on but it needs to be dissected. Let's have a breather now with the Wolfgang and attract from way back in the early 2000s of 2005 was when this Elmer was released, but it's a little bit of a favor of mine. And so which one are we going to go with this so many
